

Repeated Coursework

Clock hour programs are based on calendar time and state requirements for coursework. Any student not completing the required coursework by the scheduled completion date will be charged additional per hour fees that are not eligible for federal financial aid funding. Student must submit authorization for Title IV funding to be used for over-contract charges.